23rd Annual ENERGY LAW INSTITUTE for Attorneys and Landmen

South Texas College of Law's 2010 Energy Law Institute is truly a "can't miss" event. This year's Planning Committee has included a wide variety of topics focused on providing both Texas and Louisiana attorneys and landmen with practical tips and techniques they can immediately apply in their own practices. Topics include an Oil & Gas Case Law Update, sessions on common oil and gas transactions and agreements, important topical presentations on regulatory repercussions from the Gulf oil spill, Railroad Commission developments concerning unconventional shale plays, and international oil and gas operations.

The Institute also includes 2.5 hours of legal ethics, with informative and entertaining presentations, one hour of which qualifies for Louisiana Professionalism credit.

Join your colleagues for a packed agenda offering 13.5 MCLE hours, including 2.5 hours of legal ethics, and be sure to attend the Networking Reception immediately following the last session on Wednesday to meet and talk with members of the Planning Committee, the Institute's Faculty, and your fellow attendees.
