

RAY MOSES

Personal Information

Address: 1303 San Jacinto St., Houston, Texas 77002
Phone: 713-646-1846 E-Mail: rmoses@stcl.edu
Employment: South Texas College of Law Houston

Educational Background

Institution: Law School of the London School of Economics
Date of Attendance: Spring Semester 1986 (Academic Visitor)
Institution: Harvard Law School
Date of Attendance: Fall Semester 1976 (Visiting Scholar)
Institution: Southern Methodist University Law School
Degree: S.J.D.
Date Received: 1978
Writing: Dissertation: The Criminal Defense Sourcebook (1974)
Institution: Northwestern University School of Law (Ford Foundation Scholar)
Degree: LL.M.
Date Received: 1970
Writing: Thesis: Scientific Evidence in Criminal Case (with Professors Inbau and Moemmsens) (1974).
Institution: University of Texas Law School
Degree: LL.B. (J.D)
Date Received: January 1965
Institution: University of Texas
Degree: B.A.
Date Received: 1963

Employment History

Criminal defense practitioner (Board Certified 1982-1990); federal prosecutor (AUSA); state prosecutor (ADA); visiting judge (Harris County - CCCL); visiting professor (S.M.U. Law School).

(Sample Writings)

Criminal Practice Manual - Vols. 1 & 2, 1100 pages (CCJA 2008).
Assignments in Criminal Trial Advocacy - Simulation Exercises in Criminal Litigation, 600 pages (CCJA 2007).
The Last Word: Memorable Jury Speeches from Criminal Cases, 550 pages (CCJA 2002)
Oklahoma City Bombing: Persuasive Arguments from Nichols, 22 CHAMPION, No. 3 at 27 (April 1998).
Practicing the Argument, 21 CHAMPION, No. 39 at 54 (November 1997).
Scratching the Juror's Itch: Toward a Model of Fair Deliberative Process, 21 CHAMPION, No. 7 at 55 (August 1997).
Criminal Practice Sourcebook, 1300 pages (CCJA 1997).
The Way You Tell Your Story, 21 CHAMPION, No. 5 (June 1997).
Refutation and Reply - Exposing Weaknesses in the Prosecutor's Argument, 21 CHAMPION, No. 3 at 55 (April 1997).
Closing Arguments that Praise the Jury and Its Role in Doing Justice, 21 CHAMPION, No. 1 at 50 (January 1997).
Persuading the Sentencing Body Not to Return a Death Verdict, 20 CHAMPION, No. 9 at 52 (November 1996).
Quotations as a Persuasive Desire in Jury Arguments, 20 CHAMPION, No. 7 at 56 (August 1996).
Use of Analogies and Figures of Speech in Jury Argument, 20 CHAMPION, Vol. 5 at 48 (June 1996).
Discrediting the Cooperating Co-conspirator - Motive, Interest, Bias, 20 CHAMPION, Vols. 2 and 3 at 44 and 57 (January and April 1996).
Reasonable Doubt as a Theory, 19 CHAMPION, Vol. 9 at 37 (November 1995).
Jury Argument in Criminal Cases & Supplement, 1490 pages, 2nd edition (CCJA 1996).
Criminal Defense Sourcebook & Supplement, 900 pages (CCJA 1977).
Scientific Evidence in Criminal Cases, with Professors Inbau and Moennsens, 600 pages (Foundation Press 1974).
Scientific Proof in Criminal Cases, 450 pages (CCJA 1969).
CCJA Legal Websites Covering Crimes, Defenses, Opening Statement, Jury Argument and Criminal Practice and Trial Advocacy (+ 4,000,000 visitors)

(Sample Activities)

National Advocacy Center, Faculty; Written Material on Argument Used as Teaching Material by the National Association of District Attorneys; Member, Editorial Advisory Board, National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers; Guest Participant in Summer Law Programs in London, Heidelberg and Florence; Created All Materials for State Bar and Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Annual Criminal Law Institute; Created and Presented the CCJA Criminal Law Institute in Cooperation with the Harris County Criminal Defense Lawyers Association; Member, State Bar of Texas Board of Legal Specialization; Wrote the Written and Oral Criminal Law Examination for the Board of Legal Specialization Criminal Law Examination; Member of Grievance Committee, State Bar of Texas; Criminal Law Reporter, State Bar's Texas Lawyer's Weekly Digest; Briefing Attorney for Presiding Judge, Texas Court of Criminal Appeals; Prosecutor and Defender of Various Federal and State Court Criminal Cases