

Elizabeth Dennis is an Associate Professor of Clinical Studies at South Texas College of Law Houston, and Director of the Academic Externship program. Prof. Dennis has taught Comparative Refugee and Asylum Law in Prague and Malta, and established externships with the United Nations High Commissioner on Refugees and Jesuit Refugee Services, among others. Most recently, she was the only US law professor to speak at a multi-national conference on Regional Responses to Mass Migrations, sponsored by the University of Johannesburg and Palacky University in the Czech Republic. Prof. Dennis will teach Comparative Refugee and Asylum Law and serve as Program Director in Session II.