

The Elizabeth A. Dennis Langdell Scholar Award

DEADLINE MARCH 1, 2019

The Elizabeth A. Dennis Langdell Scholar Award was established in 2007 by L. Steve Young ('93) to honor Assistant Dean Elizabeth A. Dennis ('84) who, in 1989, established the Langdell Scholars Program, and to commemorate the positive experience he received while participating as a tutor in the Langdell Scholars Program under Dean Dennis' supervision in the early 1990s. The award is presented annually to a graduating student who has made significant contributions to the Langdell Scholar Program.

Interested third year students should complete this form and attach to it both of the following:

1. A double-spaced typed statement describing: (1) Your approach to being a Langdell Scholar, and (2) What you learned from your experience as a Langdell Scholar. Please feel free to add anything that you consider relevant to your application for the award.
2. A current résumé.
