

The Pamela E. George Family Law Award

DEADLINE MARCH 1, 2019

The Professor Pamela E. George Family Law Award is presented each year to a graduating student who has exhibited keen interest in family law and plans to pursue a career practicing family law.

Interested individuals should complete this form and attach to it both of the following:

1. A double-spaced typed statement (no longer than one and one-half pages) of your career aspirations focusing upon your interest in family law. Your statement should identify specific attributes you possess and activities—academic and/or practical—which reinforce your desire to practice in that area. Please feel free to add anything that you consider relevant to your application for the award.
2. A current résumé.
