

Supervised Research

Prerequisite*: Completion of 45 semester hours and a grade point average of at least 3.000.
Waivers of these two requirements are not given.

A substantial research paper means a paper of not less than thirty (30) typewritten, double-spaced, letter-size pages of text, plus such footnotes as are appropriate for a paper of publishable quality. Footnotes and tabular material do not count toward the required 30 pages of text. Failure to submit your paper by the due date below could result in a grade reduction, and/or an incomplete or failing grade.

Attach a detailed description of the issues you will research for your paper, any special research methods involved, and an indication of how or why this paper will either be helpful to your own professional development or be a contribution to legal scholarship.

Note: This course is included in the (3) course maximum for seminars which a student may apply toward graduation or include in his or her grade point average. This form must be completed, signed by the supervising faculty member, and returned to the Registrar with description attached for approval and enrollment in the course.
