STORY OF THE RING

Strength, resilience, pride.

•The South Texas College of Law Houston class ring features images that reflect these bold characteristics—personified by the law school’s graduating students and alumni. The bald eagle, a widely recognized symbol of American strength and pride, is presented in the same commanding position as the bronzed eagle statue on prominent display in the law school’s front atrium. The scales of justice signify a conviction to maintain the highest standards of fair and equal administration of the law — a value that is underscored and reinforced throughout the STCL Houston student experience. The substantive, open book represents the volume of knowledge students gain throughout the J.D. program, as well as a dignified understanding that they must continue to learn and develop throughout their careers.
