

Rob Galloway

South Texas College of Law Houston

Professor of Law
Vice President, Advocacy
W. James Kronzer, Jr., Distinguished
Professor of Advocacy

713.825.0827
rgalloway@stcl.edu

Rob Galloway teaches advocacy skills. For 30 years, he has been a fixture at national moot court competitions—both as a team coach and a tournament director. He has also directed trial competitions and served on the ABA’s Competitions Committee for 13 years. Throughout his career, he has led teams to countless victories, keeping South Texas consistently ranked among the nation’s best by all those who rank advocacy programs.

Experience Highlights

- Directed the day-to-day activities of the South Texas Advocacy Program since 2007
- Coached moot court teams since 1991
- Taught Appellate Advocacy for Baylor Law School’s Academy of the Advocate in St. Andrews, Scotland every summer since 2013
- Directed the South Texas Mock Trial Challenge since 2013
- National President of the National Association of Legal Advocacy Educators
- Administered the California regions of the National Moot Court Competition since 2009
- Served as a Trustee of a charitable foundation that awards more than $600,000 annually in educational grants since 2019
- Practiced law as a Senior Partner in the Houston office of Thompson & Knight before joining full-time faculty
- Served on ABA Competitions Committee for 13 years, including two terms as Overall Chair
- Served as TYLA Director
- Served twice as National Chair of the TYLA’s National Trial Competition
- Clerked for a state appellate judge after law school
- Presented frequently at Stetson’s EATS Conference, the National Coaches Clinic, and other national advocacy conferences

Recognition

- Received ABA Law Student Division’s Lifetime Achievement Award
- Received 2021 Faculty Award for Excellence in Service
- Received TYLA President’s Award
- Inducted into the Order of the Barristers
- Received Law Review writing award
- Won TYLA’s State Moot Court Competition

Education

J.D. South Texas College of Law Houston
B.B.A. Southwestern University